

Indiana Extension Homemakers Association

WHEREAS, Indiana Extension Homemakers Association®, consisting of over 10,000 active members in 90 counties of Indiana endeavor to improve the greatest institution in the world, “The Home”, and

WHEREAS, Its objectives is:

- (1) to coordinate and motivate the membership of the Extension Homemakers Clubs in building educational programs which are relevant to the needs and interests of Indiana Homemakers.
- (2) to study and work in programs and activities which pertain to the development of family, home and community;
- (3) to cooperate in programs which benefit people worldwide;
- (4) to strengthen and develop the organizational leadership at county, district, and state levels;
- (5) to encourage Extension Homemakers and their related fields in educational institutions;

and

WHEREAS, the Indiana Extension Homemakers through their local clubs endorse, encourage and assist the 4-H program; and

WHEREAS, The Indiana Extension Homemakers have been actively engaged in promoting education, leadership development and volunteer community support at the local, state, national and international level since 1913.

That to honor the service and accomplishments of the Indiana Extension Homemakers Association®, that October ____, through October ____, 20____, be declared Indiana Extension Homemakers Week.

Indiana Extension Homemakers Week starts on Sunday and ends the 4th Saturday of October.

This is a sample proclamation that may be revised as needed.