

*Commissioned for the 100th Anniversary of the Indiana Extension Homemakers Association – June 13, 2013
Performed by the Melody Makers of Indiana Association*

LOVE IS HOME
Words and Music by Ted Arthur

There is a place where love resides built on joy and heart,
Where dreams begin, the future's bright; Home is where we start.
We've learned so much within these walls, to give is to receive.
Stories heard and lessons learned, we live what we believe.

Love is home, Love is home
Nurturing arms extend a hand to reach us all. We all belong,
One family sings this song. We know that love is home.

Our beliefs we hold so dear are windows to the soul,
It's time to share what we've been taught: our house in now a home.
Through life's winding journey, we travel near and far.
But we know there's a place that calls no matter where we are.

Loved ones have come and gone. Family ties will transcend.
Across this land we're not alone with an extension of our friends.

Welcome home!