

Now that I am a member....

What are the benefits?

Besides gaining new friends, you will acquire knowledge. Extension Homemakers are individuals of common interest who organized so they can participate in a statewide program of continuing adult education, leadership and community service.

What is my responsibility?

Every member takes turn at presenting or supporting a leader lesson to the club members. There are guides for you to follow in giving a lesson. In this way, you learn leadership, as well as gain knowledge.

How much are dues?

Dues are $5.00 to the State, _____ county and _____ local club, which makes you a member of the local, county, state and national organization.

How often does the club meet?

Generally, each club will meet once a month. Special interest clubs may vary.

Where do you meet? Meetings are held in members' homes, a public place/meeting room or other location that meets the needs of the club members.

Who sponsors the program?

Extension Homemakers carry on educational programs sponsored by Purdue University's Cooperative Extension Service. County Extension Educators and Purdue University's Extension Specialists provide the latest research and other information available from the United States Department of Agriculture and land-grant experiment stations. In _____ County, the Extension Office is located at _____ and the phone number is _____.

Who belongs?

Extension Homemaker's clubs are open to everyone without regard to race, color, creed, sex, national origin or social economic circumstances. Anyone old enough to write their name or legal mark is able to join.